Ho hum... Material Handling

Material Handling

- Handling and storing materials involves diverse operations

Material Handling

- Includes very simple chores…

Material Handling

- Efficient handling and storing of materials is vital to industry - as well as self.
  - Know your limits – WEIGHT/LOAD

Ha-Ha!

THINK!

- People need to THINK… and PLAN…
  - Proper loads
  - Limitations

HUMAN Tie-Down… #1

HUMAN Tie-Down...
#2

Human Tie-Down… # 3

- Secure the loads properly!!

Organized Mess… A secured load?

Human Tie-Down… # 4

- Secure the loads properly!!

Getting a Boost…

Almost Up…

Yeah, I trust those ropes!

A Car is NOT a Truck!

Make sure you use the correct equipment for the job!

New Battering Ram

- But I put a warning flag on the end of it...

Know your LENGTH Limits!

The kids will love

No Assembly Required!

Contributing Factors

- Weight of object
- Bulkiness of object being lifted or moved

Yes, I do TRUST

The 2 HYDRAULIC SYSTEMS…

NEVER stand Under a suspended Load!

Accidents / Injuries

- Falling objects
- Improperly stacked materials
- Improper use of materials handling and storing equipment
- Improper movement of materials
- Haste

DUCT Tape can do ANYTHING!

Basic Rules for Material Handling

- Avoid short cuts
- YOU are responsible
- Adjust speed for conditions
- Know your load LIMITS/capacities!
- Stack materials to avoid creating hazards
- Avoid horseplay

News from the CRC

- 25 Aug - New Commander of US Army Combat Readiness Center

BG William H. Forrester

Director of Army Safety

News from the CRC

- “We know our Warriors live and operate on the leading edge, but they should not be alone on the edge. Leaders must be there, engaged and accountable. Leaders must stay engaged. We must lead on the edge. There is no such thing as an anonymous leader. Leaders commit.
- Our job as leaders: ENGAGE. Engage at the lowest level.”

SAFE

Here's the story…

And the winner is…

Lessons Learned

- NEVER leave pot/pan unattended.
- Never ASSUME one sitting 10’ away will get off one’s $^#% derriere to turn off stove or remove pan from stove prior to saying “Something’s burning on the stove…”
- Always REMEMBER to wipe up spills completely.
- Consider going out to eat!
